A numbered limited-edition porcelain collector plate trimmed in 23kt gold.

It was a sight to behold! A team of three spirited white horses thundering by at full gallop, their hoofbeats echoing off the pavement. Straining mightily and stepping in perfect rhythm, they hauled the brightly polished fire wagon around the corner ... its smokestack belching clouds of smoke and its fire bell loudly clanging the alarm!

Now, talented artist Tony Falcone captures all the color and excitement of a turn-of-the-century horse-drawn fire wagon in Answering the Call. This spectacular painting has never before appeared on a fine porcelain collector plate.

Answering the Call is available exclusively from the Danbury Mint and is part of an edition limited to 75 firing days. Each handnumbered plate will be accompanied by a personalized Certificate of Authenticity. As an elegant finishing touch, each plate will be trimmed with 23kt gold.

A remarkable value; satisfaction guaranteed.

Answering the Call is affordably priced at just $26.95, with satisfaction completely guaranteed. If you are not delighted, you may return your plate for replacement or refund within 30 days of receipt. Demand for this exciting collector plate is expected to be strong. Serial numbers will be assigned as Reservation Applications are received, so mail yours today!

Steam Pumps Pulled by Horses were used by fire departments from the mid-1800's to the early 1900's. At the time, they were a major improvement over the hand pumps formerly used.
